WEDNESDAY, JUNE 26, 1907.

Every great and commendable movement in the annals of the world is the triumph of enthusiasm. So wrote Mr. Emerson and he never wrote a truer thing. To work in a lifeless, spiritless way is to work like a slave, but to sing and work, to be enthused at your work is harbinger of success. God in you and that is enthusiasm and must mean victory. Feel the touch of the infinite, realize that an omnipotent one stands ready to aid you, and tolerate no such word as failure.

Mr. Tucker was never selected a business manager of the Exposition and the selection of Mr. Barr as active manager of the show at this late day is no reflection on him as president. The late lamented Gen Lee was chosen to do certain work and Mr. Tucker was selected to continue that work, which he did admirably well. The details of management were committed to other hands.

The Richmond Times-Dispatch is anxious about getting out good citizens to the polls. The great trouble with our primary is not the primary, but it is conducted as a rule in the interest of the leaders, who represent a minority, and are afraid to give the people a fair shake at 'em. There is no nigger. Why not give the white people a chance to rule over the bosses and minority leaders.

Wm. Jennings Bryan is already announced to be at the State Fair in October, and this county means that Bryan day will be the big day of the Fair. For the time being premium pig and premium pumpkins will all be forgotten and to see and hear this peerless fellow citizen will be the all-absorbing topic of the day at the Richmond Fair.

It begins to look as though Mr. Roosevelt would take back his promise and take another chance at the presidency. He has strong hold on the voters but our hope is that the opposition to "third term" is still stronger. To contend that it is only the second trial is to trifle with the intelligence of the American people.

Minorities sometimes control. The successful aspirant for Congress in the 8th district, at the recent primary received just a trifle over one-third of the vote cast, and yet he goes to Congress as their representative. In this case a minority has rights which the majority is forced to respect.

San Francisco has been the home of intense and disgusting graft, but when the authorities got after the wrong doers they soon chased them into their holes. Here is fine example for New York and Philadelphia. You may not be able to prevent wrong doing but you may punish the wrong doer.

When the Express Company can pay a dividend of 300 per cent there must be something doing in this department of human industry. Why not reduce charges? And if they wont do it why should'nt they be made to do it?

Courting and cooing by telephone should be positively forbidden. The line is too often "busy" when it should be open for business.

The manufacturers say the tariff should be revised, many leading Republicans say so, all Democrats demand it, and why then isn't it done? Most men agree that it is time the Government was contributing to public road improvement and again "there is nothing doing."

Manteo.

It is with sorrow we note the departure from this life to the realm above of our beloved neighbor and friend, Mr. Samuel Blair Gibson. On June 14th a 6 a. m. his soul took flight after an illness of several months of great suffering, which he bore with the am quiet christian manner in which he had spent his life on earth. He was a true soldier to the lost cause, a neighbor worthy of the name and always loyal to his maker. I will not undertake to say how sadly he will be missed by one and all.

The past week was surely one of many duties for the now happy farmer.

Dr. S. R. Glover attended the examination of the State Medical Board in Lynchburg last week. Ware after Dr. Sam to stay at home, and we want him.

Geo. W. Patteson, Jr. has returned home after a very delightful trip to Jamestown from the V. P. I.

B. G. Boatwright and sister, Miss Kathrine, attended the burial of their uncle, Mr. S. B. Gibson, in Lynchburg on June 15th.

Miss Mary G. Glover spent last week in the Hill City.

Mr. Lewis Cabell and family have gone to the mountains for a month or so.

Miss Edna Tabscott, of Warren, is spending some time with Mr. and Mrs Sam Steger.

Mrs. J. B. Horsley has been quite ill for the past two weeks. Dr. Morris is attending her.

Rev. W. P. Province delivered a very able and instructive sermon at Woodland on Sunday afternoon.

Mrs. C. Y. Horsley was called home from Lynchburg last week on account of the illness of her daughter, Mrs. J. B. Horsley.

We learn there are several parties negotiating for the magnificent Gibson farm at this point.

A great deal of the corn crop has had to be planted over in this locality.

We are told that Mr. Glover recently received something over six dollars net for his lambs. Mr Glover always tops the market.

Mr. H. M. Harris had the misfortune to lose a kiln of dressed lumber last week, which amounted to about $200.

We are sorry to learn of the death of Mr. Fred H. McCollough, of Howardsville. He passed away June 22nd while in Lynchburg for medical treatment at the home of his daughter, Mrs. Dr. Morrison. His bereaved ones have our deepest sympathy.

Miss Sallie Mills Sutton is spending a month with friends in Norfolk, attending the Exposition.

Work has been suspended on both the bridges at Scottsville and Howardsville on account of the sad death of the foreman, Mr. Marshall, of Howardsville.

Mr. G. W. Gilmer, of Albemarle county, near Howardsville, spent Sunday night at the home of his niece, Mrs. A. C. Horsley.

The recent high water came very near taking some of the timbers for the new bridge across Sycamore Creek at this point. We trust it will not be very long before it is completed.

THE TIMES.

WEDNESDAY, JUNE 26, 1907.

Dr. Dillard was in town Friday.

Miss Susie Forbes, of Lynchburg, is visiting here.

Mr. R. N. Mann has been on a visit to friends in this county.

The Sunbeams realized a neat sum at their lawn party last Friday night.

Messrs. Harry Hancock and Evant Hunter, of the V. P. I., are at home.

The tallest man in Buckingham was in town Friday—Benj. Davidson.

Dr. Sanborn, of Bellingham, Mass., is a guest of Mr. E. H. Matthewson.

We buy bones, brass, castings, and old iron.
6-19-4w PURDUM & CALDWELL.

Mr. Wilkins J. Marshall, of West Virginia, has been on a visit to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Marshall.

Mr. John C. Shearer has returned home after a visit to the bed-side of her husband, who was sick in Brandon, Va.

Mr. Thos. Harvey was in Lynchburg hunting repairs for farm machinery. We need a farm machinery house in this town.

Rev. Dr. Winn will preach at the Presbyterian Church here next Sunday night. Also at Evergreen on Sunday morning at 11 o'clock.

Fresh Meats—On every Saturday we will have for sale choice meats. Get in your orders. PURDUM & CALDWELL. 6-19-3w

There will be preaching next Sunday morning at Memorial Church at 11 o'clock a. m., and at Evergreen at 3:30 p. m. by the pastor, Rev. W. L. Murphy.

Mrs. Reynolds, who taught here this winter, and two children, left Monday morning for a visit to Jamestown before going to Richmond where she will spend the summer.

Mr. and Mrs. Luke Ferguson went up to Lynchburg on a visit last week. By the way grandpa Daniel Ferguson now has 18 grandchildren. The Fergusons are surely coming.

Mr. L. T. Seay has just completed the painting of the Tinsley mansion which was recently purchased of A. H. Clement, near the old Courthouse. The handsome old colonial style residence looks well.

Rev. J. W. Shackford, P. E. preached a fine sermon at Memorial Church Sunday night. He held quarterly conference at Evergreen Church on last Saturday. The rector in charge was a recent one and the work of the Circuit is prospering in his hands.

Beasley—Drinkard Marriage.

This evening at 2:30 o'clock at the spacious parlors of the old mansion of Mr. Chas. M. Drinkard was the scene of a happy marriage, when their daughter became the bride of Mr. Cornelius W. Beasley. Everything had been arranged for the occasion and the popularity of the contracting parties drew a large crowd.

Maid of honor—Miss Lula Drinkard, sister of the bride; best man—J. M. Bagby, of Roanoke; ushers—Miss Mattie Drinkard with A. C. Beasley; Miss Lucile Snead with A. M. Drinkard; Miss Mary Tweedy with R. N. Rents, of Bedford; Miss Mary O'Brien with F. W. McKinney; Miss Alice Martin with Robt. Emerson, of Bedford; Miss Florrie Lee with Dan Aunspaugh, of Bedford; Miss Callie Drinkard with L. J. Morris; Miss Grace Tayloe with W. C. Agee. Miss Lucy Bell with Joe LeGrande.

Ribbon bearers—Berkley Drinkard and Sallie Drinkard.

Mrs. J. R. Atwood presided at the organ.

Rev. R. C. Hubbard pastor of the bride performed the ceremony. The parlor was decorated with roses and evergreen in a most artistic manner.

There was a large attendance of friends of the families represented in this union, many coming from a distance.

The bride is a pretty and highly accomplished daughter of our townsman, Mr. Chas. M. Drinkard, and was perhaps one of the best high school teachers the county enjoyed. She has been teaching the High School here for a number of years. She is deservedly popular and all regret that she is to make her home in Bedford City—away from here. The groom, Mr. Cornelius W. Beasley, is a son of the late James Beasley, of this county and is popular and a fine business young man. He holds an important position in Bedford, where he will make his home.

The bride was married in white silk, with flowers in her hand; her going-away dress was a grey silk with brown silk trimmings with hat and gloves to match. They are now spending the honeymoon on the Ocean's shore and will take in the Exposition before going to their future home.

At the home of the bride to night a reception will be tendered the bridal party.

Death of Mrs. Elizabeth Evans.

Mrs. Elizabeth Evans, who resided at the old Evans home place, about 1½ miles north-east of Concord, died on Monday, June 17th after a continued illness of nearly 12 months. Mrs. Evans was a good Christian and a member of the Presbyterian church. She had reached the old age of 87 years and had a wide circle of friendship. There was no greater and no truer mother than Mrs. Evans. She is survived by five children left to mourn the loss of a grand mother: Mrs. S. P. Hubbard, of Lynchburg, Mrs. Nannie Brown, of Anthony, W. Va., Messrs. J. D. Eddie and George Evans. Mr. Geo. Evans was in the West and did not reach home to spend the last hours with his devoted mother. The cause of her death was generally contributed to old age. She was laid to rest in the family burying ground known as the "Dickerson graveyard" about 3 miles south of Concord. Services being conducted by their pastor, Rev. Walton.

Teacher's Examination.

The second and last examination for 1907 will be held in the High School building, July 29th, 30th and 31st. Opening each day at 9 a. m. First Grade teachers can take the first year's course on the 29th July; the second year on the 30th, and the third year on the 31st. The State and local will be held on the same days, but in different rooms.

Respectfully,
J. K. HANNAH, Supt.

Pamplin and Her Tobacco Market.

Farmers who reside in the section of Pamplin City have every reason to be proud of the tobacco market established at their trading town Pamplin. The year just closed was a most satisfactory one, both to the planters, manager and stock-holders. A dividend of 20 per cent on the stock was declared. This is too much. A part of it should have been expended for enlarging and improving. Nearly two million pounds were sold and prices were maintained and the planters were afforded a convenient market for their tobacco, and the town afforded them a good market for selling and exchanging produce, a safe banking institution to deposit their earnings, and altogether the future of the town is bright. The people are to be congratulated that Mr. Chas. Hindley is to remain in charge of the warehouse, and Mr. Hubbard is to be on hand, which is a sufficient guarantee that every pile of tobacco offered will bring its full market value.

Wesley Chapel.

Mr. Willie Lee, of Appomattox is spending his vacation at home.

Mr. Wesley Driskill is visiting his home people.

Mr. John Wooldridge is much better and returned to his business at Montvale Sunday night.

Mr. Curtis Martin visited his home Sunday.

Mr. Loyd Lewis visited Cut Banks recently.

Mrs. S. M. Woolridge visited her mother near Pamplina, who is very feeble. Her sister, Mrs. Davis was also sick.

Miss Martha Jane Woolridge is very sick.

Mrs. W. H. Lewis is not so well at this writing.

Mr. S. M. Woolridge has been quite sick but is out again.

Miss Mary L. Harvey of Cumberland and Miss Lizzie Reynolds, are visitors in this community.

Mr. S. J. Lee is on the sick list. We hope he will soon be out again.

Mr. John Woolridge expects to visit Jamestown in July.

Rev. G. A. Chockett resigned at Forest Sunday. We were sorry to see him leave but hope he will visit us again soon. We understand they are going to move the church to Evergreen.

We are glad Mrs. Williams has moved back to her old home.

Andersonville.

Well, did you ever? Ever what? Why see the land so hard to work and everything you have planted to be replanted or close planted again; and you have to do the work yourself or it will not be done. Labor is not to be had on the farm at a fair farm price. Well, it all goes in a life time. We work hard, have good appetites, sleep sound, and have Franklin's blessings, if no other, he said any one was a blessing to his country, who made two blades of grass grow where one grew before.

We had a jolly old time at the Reunion. The Richmond folks just laid themselves out entertaining. Those of the city who had fathers, brothers, uncles and cousins who were in the army, took a day in and gave us a royal good time. Now when they come up to the country we will give them fried chicken and blackberry roll. Mrs. John Oliver said this brother was the only Buckingham boy she saw in the parade that she knew. He had a good body guard, Ashley Grigg and Jim Anderson, right and left bower, with young Baston from near Dillwyn to bring up the rear. If any wild Yankees had come suddenly around a corner the boys might have done the fighting while I got to the rear. Well, it is amusing to hear and see how some of the old boys will talk and act. Old fellows beat with years of labor and hardship forgot their aches and pains and as soon as the band strikes up Dixie they will dance a gig, cut the pigeon wing or do some other ridiculious thing. I met with an old fellow at the unveiling of Stuart's monument, his legs were twisted like two grape vines from his hips to his knees, and his feet set out like a forked dog-wood; every step he would have to unwind his legs—caused by a wound at Gettysburg. I said to him, "You are in a bad fix to make the Yankees run." "Why I made a whole regiment run once," he said. "How did you do that," I asked? "Why, I took to my heels and they right after me." Capt. Sam Moseley with his banjo was having a good time from his looks; I asked him where he stopped. "Just where night over takes me," he said. West end, Church Hill, Fulton, or new Annex was all the same to Capt. Sam. Friend McCraw and I went to the Jefferson, and to the room of Gen. Lee, shook his hand and told him that we were Fourth Virginia Cavalry boys. He seemed glad to see us and said the only compliment he ever got from Fitz Lee was while he commanded the Fourth. Capt. McKinney was in command of his Co. K, while Gen. Lee (then Col.) commanded the regiment, and they were good friends. Our regiment was ordered to intercept a raid of Yankees. They on one side and we on the other of some stream in the Valley. Sharp shooters had been dismounted and the horses sent to the rear. The balance of the regiment were in squadrons with drawn sabres waiting for the command, charge, when Col. Lee came riding down in fine glee, and said to Capt. McKinney, "We are going to have some fun to-day, there is only a brigade of them; four or five Yankees to one of us." We enquired after our kinsman, Capt. Felix Flood, one of Gen. Forrest's men, a native of the same city of Gen. Lee. He told us the Captain was a fine old fellow but too unwell to make the trip. When a boy I heard Dr. Atkinson preach a sermon at the New Store Church on reconciliation in Heaven. He said when he got there he would see a great many people he did not expect to see, and some he was expecting to see would not be there. I did not see a great many Buckingham people in Richmond, but many were there. God bless every one of them, I love them all.

I suppose your subscription list is running up, as two large size frying chickens will pay for a year, three will pay for the paper twelve months and buy several pounds of sugar. The fellows that love sugar can have a good time, but you and I Mr. Editor, are Methodist and we must not go back on our record, if chickens are high.

Miss Annie Flood is on a visit to Richmond. She took in the Exposition Virginia Day, and if she has as much taste in selection of husband as the souvenir postal sent this scribe, she will make a success of it, and right here let me say to our Buckingham boys and girls be "Berticlar," as old Mr. Burach advised his children. Some of this cards look to me as out of time for refined folks; don't buy that sort, but get something that edifies, elevates, and enlightens.

Rev. Mr. Foster, from Florida, wife and three children; Mr. Kay Kendall, and Miss Holmes, of Mecklenburg, and Mr. Robt. Bedinger are or have been visitors at Mr. W. E. McCraw's.

Since the schools closed Misses Bessie and Lucy McCraw are both at home; Judge Henderson and his daughters will be there shortly from Alabama.

Misses May and Bertha Anderson are at home.

The Misses Yates, Mamie and Helen, of Lunenburg C. H., were visitors at Andersonville, that rainy week with Miss Annie Gordon, of Kentucky. We had a good old time, and if I had been a young man on the courting list, and the wind had not been in the East, I would have put in some good licks. Miss Susie Sles, of Maryland, is also a visitor. Miss Annie Gordon will take in the Exposition next week on her way back to her old Kentucky home. We shall miss her.

I think your Sheppard correspondent is wrong about the amount of drunkeness at the Courthouse, or drunken men. He does not go there very often, and it may have been the case the day he was there. No doubt there is a lot drank and sold at the blind tigers, possibly by some officials, but there is a wonderful improvement, and as soon as the detective comes along and a hundred dollar fine in a half dozen or more cases with a jail sentence, the red-eye fellows will wish they had made their living some other way. Is not the person who sells liquor an out-law, and the person who patronize him a concealer of stolen goods. The State is entitled to a fine in every case, and the concealer is keeping the State out of that much. Col. Cutshaw and Messrs. Redds are talking of checking one another up. Lets we all check each other up on the whiskey line. So Mr. Seller you take my advice and stop it. Judge Gordon may possibly catch you, if he should fail, and you keep on, the devil certainly will.

Mr. Garland Robertson and wife are visiting relatives and friends here. They will take in Jamestown before going back to their home in Beckley, W. Va.

Glad to hear our old friend and countyman, Andrew Eppes, is in good health and busy railroading with Johnson City, Tenn., as headquarters.

Miss Lucy McCraw leaves in a few days for Alabama to meet Gen. Henderson and daughters.

Mr. Virgil Agee has taken charge of Wert postoffice and moved it to Buckingham; Mr. John Scruggs, assistant, and John was a good postmaster.

Any farm or business for sale will be advertised in these columns. No charge unless sale is made. Write this office for information.

Price, $30,000—Will be sold in small tracts.

No. 1. This is an old Jamestown estate, situate five miles from Richmond, the former Confederate capital. The estate is in apple-pie order. Fine macadamized roads lead to the city. One of the best trucking and grazing farms in the State. Near here that will sell 240 head of cattle. Buildings cost over $12,000. The city of Richmond is expanding rapidly, and the Chesapeake & Ohio Railway has a station on this farm. Parties with capital to invest ought to investigate this farm. It will be sold either as a whole, or in parts.

Price, $8,000.

No. 4. Lies in Prince Edward, 4 miles from Pamplin City; 300 acres in good condition; about 100 acres in original oak; about 200 fruit trees in bearing. All cleared land not under other crops is in clover. Frame dwelling, two stories high, with 18 rooms and two large halls; metal and shingle roof. Five good houses for tenants, on of them with five rooms. All the good chimneys built of stone.

No. 8. Price $1,000

This farm lies in Prince Edward county, four miles from Prospect Depot on the N. & W. Railroad, convenient to churches, schools and mills, and contains 288 acres, one-half of which is in young growth timber. On the place is a frame house containing three rooms; also some fruit trees of different varieties. Farm has low grounds and produces good crops.

No. 178. Price $1,200

Farm lying near Hixburg containing 211½ acres, four miles from Pamplin Depot, N. & W. R. R., Appomattox county, upon which there is a good log building, four rooms and four fire-places, brick chimneys, good water house in the yard with rock and box chimneys, two good tobacco barns, a few apple trees, apples, cherries, peaches, plums, grapes &c. A spring of excellent water near the house. Convenient to schools, churches, mills, post office &c.

This is a splendid neighborhood, and one desiring a home will do well to call on the owner.

No. 100. Price $4,000

I think your Sheppard correspondent is wrong about the amount of drunkeness at the Courthouse, or drunken men. He does not go there very often, and it may have been the case the day he was there. No doubt there is a lot drank and sold at the blind tigers, possibly by some officials, but there is a wonderful improvement, and as soon as the detective comes along and a hundred dollar fine in a half dozen or more cases with a jail sentence, the red-eye fellows will wish they had made their living some other way. Is not the person who sells liquor an out-law, and the person who patronize him a concealer of stolen goods. The State is entitled to a fine in every case, and the concealer is keeping the State out of that much. Col. Cutshaw and Messrs. Redds are talking of checking one another up. Lets we all check each other up on the whiskey line. So Mr. Seller you take my advice and stop it. Judge Gordon may possibly catch you, if he should fail, and you keep on, the devil certainly will.

Price, $2,000.

No. 209. Lies in Nelson county, 13 miles from Rockfish station. 110 acres, 50 in timber, white oak, poplar, chestnut, and locust. Frames dwelling of six rooms, two stories in height, shingle roof. 300 fruit trees on the place, 200 Albemarle pippins in bearing, 100 winesaps five year old. Land produces corn, tobacco and wheat of good quality.

No. 103. Price $3,750

This farm, containing 302 acres, adjoins No. 104, and is in good condition in every way—well fenced and ready for work. It lies in Appomattox County, about 4 miles from West Appomattox depot on N. & W. Railroad, on the main county road and is easy of ingress and egress. Owing to its good situation, it is considered very cheap. There are no buildings on it, but No. 104, described below, can be bought with it. The two would make a fine stock farm.

Price, $,000—Easy terms.

Three Disasters:

Common with Credit Houses. One said: "I will pay you Saturday night if I live." HE'S DEAD. Another said: "See you tomorrow." HE'S BLIND. Still another: "I hope to pay this week or go to H——." HE'S GONE.

Moral:

Spend your cash with a cash house (Thats us) where you don't have to pay for these misfortunes.

NATURE'S GREAT BLOOD TONIC
Piedmont-Bedford Concentrated Iron & Alum Water

(Representing the Famous Bedford Alum & Iron Springs of Va.)

contains 17 of the most powerful Mineral Tonics.

An 18-oz. bottle contains all the minerals in a barrel of the average water. We furnish the minerals, you furnish the water.

We have certificates both from the public and from eminent physicians, telling of its virtue in Dyspepsia, Rheumatism, a large variety of Female Diseases, Chronic Diarrhœa and Dysentery, General Debility, Anæmia, Malar a, Ulceration of the Throat, Diabetes, Piles, Chronic Eczema, Nervousness and Chronic Constipation, and multiplying the wonderful cures in that dreadful disease, Scrofula.

DR. T. L. KABLER, for fifteen years a resident at the Springs, says: For Scrofula, that fearful destroyer of human health and happiness, we have in this water a remedy which neither science nor fortunate accident has hitherto found an equal. It is in this malady, and some forms of secondary and tertiary Syphilis, that this water when carried to its full alterative effect, displays its highest curative powers. In all forms of diseases peculiar to females, this water will be found to exert a curative influence second to none in Virginia.

I have given your Concentrated Water a fair trial, and say with pleasure I have been greatly benefited. For some years I have suffered more or less with Indigestion, followed by Constipation and other attendant ills. Within the past two months I have found such relief from your remedy that I have improved in strength and weight; have eaten what I have not dared to do for a long time, and have done harder work than I have been able to do before for years.

REV. OSCAR LITTLETON,
Presiding Elder, Lynchburg, Va.

Since 1894 I have been afflicted with Chronic Diarrhœa. About six months ago I commenced using your Concentrated Iron and Alum Water with the most wonderful and satisfactory results. For three or four years past I have been deprived of the privilege of visiting friends or going to church, as my trouble kept me in constant apprehension, having lost almost entirely the control of my bowels; but now I am happy to state that after using about a half dozen bottles of your remedy I am entirely cured, and having used my for the last four months. I can confidently and most gladly recommend your remedy for Chronic Diarrhœa.

CAPT. RUFUS AMIS, Virginia, Va.

I was an intense sufferer for some months with Indigestion, and could get no relief from the ordinary home remedies. During the month of January I began the use of your Concentrated Water, and one bottle has entirely relieved me. I can now digest any diet and am entirely free from suffering. I take great pleasure in giving this testimonial.

Rev. H. M. BLAIR,
Editor N. C. Christian Advocate,
Greensboro, N. C.

I have used and prescribed waters from several Iron and Alum Springs, but none of them begin to come up to your Concentrated Water in all that goes to make the ideal alterative, strengthener, appetizer and restorative. It is at once a fine tonic and flesh-builder. Have advised several recently to try it, and always with fine and quick results. In January I had a bottle sent from one of your dealers to a lady, with the understanding that if it did not at once improve her digestive apparatus, I would pay her $1.00 myself. She not only willingly paid the bill, but used a part of one-half dozen more bottles, and is now completely cured of a long and annoying Stomach Trouble. This seems to be the case with all who try you.
